What would your 'dream library' look like?

In my dream library,
there would be animals that you could stroke while you were reading.
There would also be a hot chocolate machine and lots of comfy cushions!

My dream library
would be outdoors.
The books would be in the trees and you could climb a tree to pick a book!
There would be hammocks between the trees that you could lie in to read!

Choosing a new book

To help you choose which book to read next, you could:

- Ask for recommendations from friends, family, teachers or librarians
- Read book reviews
- Look for books by an author you like
- Look for a front cover that attracts your attention
- Read the blurb on the back of a book
- Read the first page of a book

Take a risk and try something completely different.
